

Peace Corps Fellows/USA

Peace Corps Fellows/USA is a graduate fellowship program that offers financial assistance to RPCVs who wish to earn professional certification, master's or doctoral degrees in a variety of subject areas. RPCVs also complete paid internships in underserved U.S. communities where they gain valuable on-the-job training while helping meet local needs that would otherwise go unmet. Additionally, as interns, RPCVs are able to fulfill the Peace Corps' third goal by sharing their knowledge of other countries and cultures with colleagues and community members.
