

SPIE—The International Society for Optical Engineering Scholarships

Scholarships are available to SPIE members enrolled in high school, undergraduate, and graduate programs in optics, optical science and engineering, including photonics, electro-optics, and optoelectronics, or a related field. Scholarship awards typically support tuition and related expenses; travel to SPIE technical meetings; research activities and initiatives; or supplement existing research and teaching assistantships.

Academic Level

Undergraduate Graduate

Website

SPIE

Nomination Required

Yes