Team Building

Ice breakers and team building exercises are some of the best ways to get your group members acquainted, communicating, and creating memories. Browse the Team Building tools to find activities that will enhance your team's collaboration and creativity.

Leadership Topics (XCEL Points)

XCEL Points sheets are a resource for all WPI students—from aspiring to experienced student leaders—and cover such topics as event planning, time management, and conflict resolution. Find XCEL Points online or outside the Student Activities office.

Leadership Library

The Leadership Library offers books, magazines, and games to help you enhance your leadership skills. Topics include diversity, leadership theory, and team building. Browse the Leadership Library online and come into the Student Activities Office to check out a resource.

Project Adventure Team Building Supplies

Developed by Project Adventure, an educational organization that provides leadership through adventure-based programming, an extensive collection of team building tools is available for use by WPI student organizations. To learn more, email the Student Activities Office.
