

Civil Rights Summer Fellowship

Civil Rights Summer (CRS) is a Fellowship designed for students who want to work for a socially just America.

CRS provides an opportunity for students from around the country to spend a summer together (one week at Harvard University, seven weeks in Washington, DC) honing their civil rights expertise and leadership skills.

Academic Level

Undergraduate

Field(s) of Study

Humanities,
Social Sciences,
Law and Diplomacy

Website

Civil Rights Summer Fellowship

Nomination Required

Yes