Want to get to know students outside of your social group? Help build community on campus? ProjectConnect is a fun, 6-session peer-led program.

This evidence-based program fosters conversation, connection, and community. Over the course of six weeks, participants discuss a series of thought-provoking questions, complete a mini connection project, and get together for a celebration. Students love this program -- 98% said they would recommend ProjectConnect to a friend! The Center for Well-Being is excited to be joining other colleges and universities in offering ProjectConnect to the WPI community.

Looking for a way to boost your well-being and build community?

You are a great candidate for ProjectConnect if you:

- Would enjoy getting to know an awesome group of students
- Are a community-builder and want to improve student well-being
- Want to have deeper, more interesting conversations
