

Associated General Contractors of America Educational and Research Foundation Scholarships

The AGC Education and Research Foundation provides undergraduate and graduate scholarships for students ABET or ACCE-accredited construction or civil engineering programs. Undergraduate scholarships are available to freshmen, sophomores, and juniors. Graduate Scholarships are available to college seniors enrolled in an undergraduate construction or civil engineering degree program, or others possessing an undergraduate degree in construction or civil engineering.

Academic Level

Undergraduate Graduate

Website

Associated General Contractors of America Educational and Research Foundation S...

Nomination Required

Yes