

National Highway Institute Eisenhower Graduate Transportation Fellowships

The purpose of the Eisenhower Graduate Transportation Fellowships is to sponsor persons interested in pursuing a Master's, Ph.D. (or equivalent) degree in a field of study which is directly related to transportation. The Fellowship recipient's degree program must contain a major, minor or emphasis in transportation. Funding for Eisenhower Graduate Transportation Fellowships for Master's candidates is awarded for two years maximum, but must be expended within three years. Funding for Eisenhower Graduate Fellowships for Ph.D. (or equivalent) candidates is awarded for three years maximum, but must be expended within five years.

Academic Level

Graduate

Website

National Highway Institute Eisenhower Graduate Transportation Fellowships

Nomination Required

Yes