Social Science Research Council (SSRC) Information Technology, International Cooperation and Global Security - Summer Fellowships

The goal of the SSRC ITIC fellowships is to help scholars acquire the intellectual skills necessary to begin building a substantial body of knowledge about IT, and the relationships between IT, cooperation and security in transnational, international and global realms. The program seeks to help specialists in one aspect of this domain gain broader and deeper access to its other aspects, and their connections.

Academic Level
Graduate

Field(s) of Study   Humanities, STEM, Social Sciences, Law and Diplomacy

Website
SSRC Fellowships & Prizes

Nomination Required
Yes